Lisa Deane Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert . W. Anderson, and Wallace Lindsey, son of Mrs. Katherine Lindsey. It was a very quiet wedding, with only the families and a few inti-mate friends present, and the Rev. William Jackson Morton, rector of his-toric Christ Church, in Alexandria, performed the ceremony.

The bride descended the stairway with her father, who gave her away, and they were met at the altar by the orldegroom and his best man, Thomas Sebrell, of Harrisonburg. Her wed-ding gown was of embroldered white crepe with a bodice of chiffon and point lace, and her veil of illusion was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Edgar Lyons Woods, wife of Dr. E. L. Woods, United States Navy, was her sister's dame of honor, and wore a quaint gown of pink brocaded crepe trimmed in Chantilly lace. Her flowers were pink sweetpeas.

The wedding is of much interest to Richmond society, where the bride has many times visited. She was frequently a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, during the latter's regime at the Governor's Mansion, and has been much admired here. has been much admired here.
